COMING UP!
CAROLINA VOICES PRESENTS
“Bandstand Boogie: Hits of American Bandstand”
2 Performances – May 9 & 10, 2014
Spirit Square’s McGlohon Theatre

CHARLOTTE, NC... (April 1, 2014) – We’re going hoppin’, we’re going hoppin’ tonight! Carolina Voices’ Mainstage Choir pays tribute to the best rock n’ roll music crazes of the 60s, 70s, and 80s in its spring production of “Bandstand Boogie: Hits of American Bandstand,” May 9 & 10, 2014, 7:30pm at Spirit Square’s McGlohon Theatre. From Dick Clark to the fab styles, dance crazes and energetic music of the iconic Bandstand, Carolina Voices invites audiences to experience it all again in this two-hour concert that will also feature Spotlight Dances, special guest vocalists and dancers, plus old film clips, photos and fun trivia.

“American Bandstand and Dick Clark reigned over the changing styles of rock n’ roll for more than four decades,” said Kristin Hinds, director of MainStage Choir. “Our production of Bandstand Boogie will touch upon all these musical genres and provide audiences with an energetic salute to the evolution of pop music.”

Hinds said that the MainStage Choir will perform musical numbers such as More Today Than Yesterday, Like A Prayer, How Sweet It Is!, Walk Like A Man and much more. In addition, Charlotte performer Andy Faulkenberry will serve as emcee of the show. “Andy has been seen in many area theatrical productions, including Seussical the Musical, Bye Bye Birdie, and Avenue Q. We are thrilled that he’s agreed to join us as our own ‘Dick Clark’ in “Bandstand Boogie.”

Carolina Voices is once again collaborating with choreographer Eddie Mabry, owner and director of Eddie Mabry Talent. Eddie is a long-time Charlotte artist, choreographing more than 100 productions throughout the region. In addition, the organization is excited to announce it is also working with Storytellers Dance Academy, a new studio located in Monroe and owned by choreographer Robert Brower.

Tickets for “Bandstand Boogie” are $23 - $29, with discounts for seniors, groups and youth. To order by phone, contact Carolina Voices at 704.374.1564 or Carolinatix at 704.372.1000; or, online at www.carolinatix.org.
